About The Hutchins School

History

The Hutchins School was founded in 1846 as a memorial to The Venerable William Hutchins, first Archdeacon of the colony of Van Diemen's Land.

Hutchins commenced operations under Headmaster J R Buckland at Ingle Hall in lower Macquarie Street, one of the oldest homes still standing in Hobart. In 1849 it moved to a purpose-build schoolhouse on Macquarie Street designed by Tasmanian architect William Archer. The Buckland family's combined 46 years in charge of Hutchins served to set the School on a distinguished educational and spiritual path, and it continues to expand and develop to this day.

The School opened a new sub-primary facility in Sandy Bay in 1947, before adding the Memorial Oval in 1955 and the Junior School in 1957. The Senior School followed in stages after the purchase of the former Queenborough Cemetery in 1960. The boarding house, science wing, administration block and classrooms, all opened in 1964.

The Macquarie Street building was sold in 1965 and Hutchins commenced full operations at Sandy Bay the following year, gradually adding a Middle School, Early Learning Centre, chapel, gymnasium, auditorium, sports grounds and performing arts centre.
